

Functional requirement

1. The system shall allow students to book seats in a selected library.
2. The system shall display the opening times and if there are pc workstations in a clicked library.
3. The system shall provide to update the number of free seats by a single click.